Mother, Call that Bird! Author: Alisha Berger
Illustrator: Krishnagopal

Shreshtha Translator: Mitralal Pangyani

Mother! Please call the bird that lives in that tree.

Mother! Please throw the bird some grains so that it comes to us.

Mother! I want see how the bird eats the grains.

Mother! How will she land on her feet?

Mother! How will she walk on the ground?

Mother! The bird might be thirsty,
let's put out some water for her.

Mother! The bird is so beautiful.

Mother! I want to listen to her song.

Mother! I want to see how she dances.

Mother! I want to play with the bird.

Mother! Let's make a swing for her,
with a string.

Mother! The bird's feet are bare. Let's give her shoes.

Mother! The bird has no clothes. Let's sew clothes for her.

Mother! The bird is my friend.

Mother! Please, tell the bird to stay with us forever.
